W. D. B. Esq.

Officiating Secretary to the Government Savings Bank.

Sir
After a period of 39 years service in the employ of Government I feel my health so much impaired and my constitution generally so enfeebled that I fear I am no longer equal to the efficient discharge of the duties of my post as Accountant in the Savings Bank. I respectfully beg to request you will be pleased to submit my case for the favorable consideration of Government with a view to my being permitted to avail myself of the provision so liberally made by Government for the benefit of their superannuated servants.

I trust you will not Consider

consider it out of place if I add up to a few facts connected with my past career in the hope that they may influence you to recommend me for a higher rate of pension than that allowed by rule, there being not a few instances of the Government having manifested their liberality in this way towards old servants, whose salary it might have been deemed inexpedient to augment, but whose great services were recognized by the grant of a pension equivalent to $\frac{2}{3}$ of their salary.

I entered the service of Government on the 1st February 1822 I served until 1834 as a Writer in the Government Telooquo Translations Office, from the latter date to 23rd May 1836 in the late Government Bank from

31 from which Institution I was transferred to the Savings Bank in the 24th May 1836.

I hold testimonials from Mr. John McNeill as per margin of the manner in which I was considered by Mr. J. C. Morris and Mr. A. J. Cherry to have performed my duties. I may however add, that in 1841 my duties had so increased over what they were on my original appointment to the Savings Bank, that the then Directors considered my case worthy of a special recommendation for an increase of pay which the Supreme Govt were pleased to grant thereby augmenting my salary from Rs 70 to Rs 105. Vide Official

Consultation No. 960-2. Nov. 1841.

Order of Govt. No 25.
1st Jan'y 1842.
Correspondence as per margin. But since 1841 the increase of my duties has been very considerable and to perform them efficiently.

I have been obliged to tax my powers to such a degree that I am at this day in a great measure deprived of my sight. The number of Depositors at the present time exceeds that of 1841 by nearly 3 times. So that my individual duties have increased in the same proportion the work of my many labors being to check individually and on my own responsibility every account and keep the Cash Book.

Under these circumstances I beg respectfully to appeal to your kindness & humbly to beg you will be pleased to obtain for me now in my declining years such provision which will alleviate the infirmities I have contracted by the performance of duties so greatly increased than my salary was.

was increased. After which no further allowance was granted.

humble servant,

Savings Bank

Sir

With reference to my application of the 19th Ultimo, I beg to submit that Judging from the present state of my health, I cannot calculate upon living long on this earth. I labour under such a weight of old age & infirmity that I do not expect to continue this life longer than 5 years. It may, if God wish it, be ended earlier. I estimate, as I am of any means of livelihood other than what I derive from Government, & having to support a large family which is.

is dependent upon me the grant of a Pension of two thirds of my salary if Government please to allow it, will be quite inadequate for my wants.

I solicit therefore that you will be pleased to recommend to Government the grant to me of full pension on condition that it be reduced to two thirds after 5 years should God spare my life longer than that period and that if my eldest son aged 14 years and who is receiving his education should obtain employment within that period my pension may be reduced by the amount of his earning. I am emboldened to make this request under the hope that Government will not refuse it to a servant who has labored hard for nearly 40 years

years without sufficient remuneration for his troubles, and whose infirmities have been brought on him by such laborious service.

I beg to remain

I found A. Venkatayaloo the Writer of the Telugu Translator when I was appointed to that Office in January 1832 & highly approving of his Conduct. I subsequently appointed him to the Office of Clerk in the Govt Bank on 42 Rs. a month. Accountant in the same Office on 60 Rs. a month & Head Accountant & Manager of Savings Bank on 70 Rs. which has since been increased to 105 Rs. per mensem. I have the highest opinion of Venkatayaloo - He is a Capital Accountant & a most hard working good man & I hope he may obtain the further advancement he so richly deserves.

 This is to certify that I examined A. Venkatanayloo Bramm, Accountant in the Government Savings Bank, and find that he is unfit for further service, in consequence of old age and impaired vision, and so far as I have been able to ascertain, his incapacity has not been produced by intemperance, or other irregular habits.
