Memo.

Government in their Proceedings No 288 dated the 21st June 1861. sanctioned the payment of a gratuity of 6 months salary to Casara Rau late Head Master in the Principal Cadjan Boutique at Caddatore. He had a service of 25 years, 2 months and 19 days, but only 17 years, 10 months, and 13 days could now be reckoned, because after 7 years 4 months and 6 days service Casara Rau had, on a former occasion, received a gratuity of 6 months salary (Rs 330). The circumstances however were stated to him the same indulgence that had been granted in former similar instances.

- Ans.

and ordered that if Lascara Rao a paid the amount of gratuity origi paid him than he might reckon that former portion of his services as -ping toward a Pension of 1/3 sala So this Lascara Rao was Objecte he is a very poor man, heavily in d and unable to repay in one lump su so large an amount as ₹320. - He applies to Government to admit h to Pension at once, and deduct from his monthly Pension a sum in repayment of the gratuity until the debt has been cleared off b instalments. - Or else, he expres his readiness to agree to the arra -ngement that he be nominally pe -sioned, but that no payments shall be made him until the original gratuity has been recovered by forbearance. - The Principal Sub Collector of Cuddalore states that he is aware that Lascara Rao is in indi:

-gent circumstances, & it is now to be decided whether this misfortune is to operate to his disadvantage and prevent his being benefitted by the favorable order of Government origi: -nally passed on his case. -
In G.O. No 54 dated the 11th October 1844 it is ruled that when public servants, in active employment, are desirous of claiming a Pension at the end of their service, they may refund any gratuity they may formerly have received by a monthly stoppage of half their salaries. This rule applies only to persons actually in Government employ, & it has been usual for persons who have retired & are permitted by Government to expend their gratuities to do so in one lump payment. There does not however appear to be any great objection to grant, as a special act of grace and favor, the permission sought by Casava Rao, & extend the principle of the rule cited above to his case. If a moiety of the monthly Pension now deducted for Government would not be occasioned any pecuniary loss in event of Casava Rao's death, while the grant of Pension would, doubtless, be a great boon to him. — to reckon his former period of service as qualifying for the pension he is now desirous of obtaining. - The Principal Clerk in answer also mentions his knowledge of the poverty of the Petitioner.

2 Lascars Clerk prays that he may at least be admitted to pension but that a moiety of the monthly sum allowed him may be deducted until the whole gratuity has been recovered by payment.
He also prays his readiness to agree to the arrangement that payment should credit the whole of his pension, monthly, to the gratuity to be repaid, & make no payment to him at all until the whole has been cleared off. -

that Petitioners pension would be only £16.2.0 and if a moiety if it were deducted a period of 40 months, or 3 1/3 years, would elapse before Petitioner could enjoy the whole - It has always hitherto been usual for individuals who have been permitted to refund the gratuities drawn by them, to pay the Slave down at once, and for unless on the present occasion see no reason to make an ex-ception in Cassava Kaas favor that would cause much in-convenience to carry out, and afford a precedent for simi-lar applications in future.

Cassava Kaas must either refund the gratuity in one payment, or accept the gratuity to which the latter portion of his service now entitles him. —

Proceedings of Government

Dated 11th October 1861.

Under the circumstances represented the Government see no reason to admit Cusawa Row's Request to deduct by monthly instalments the gratuity granted him lately out of the Pension he is entitled to enjoy and which would be paid by Government.
