Sir,

During the last year I obtained four months leave of absence owing to ill health and placed myself under medical treatment which so far benefitted me as to allow me to resume my duties in May last. But application to work has brought on my old illness and I find myself now unequal to further work I beg therefore to be permitted to resign my situation from this date and will feel very thankful if you will kindly lay my resignation before the Commisary General for his acceptance.

I respectfully beg that the sanction of Govt. may be obtained to my being allowed the usual gratuity as I have served them faithfully for the past 22 years and am now retiring in consequence of ill health and

and infirmities.
