To

C. B. Thomas Esq<sup>r</sup>

Collector of Coimbatore

Sir,

I have the honor to annex a Statement of the appointments held by Govinda Row lately Second Goornasta in the Codumulpotta Talook. This individual has just sent in his resignation of the service on account of old age (he entered the service at the age of 39 years, and has served uninterruptedly for upwards of 22 years) and has applied for pension. It will be necessary for him to furnish a Medical Certificate confirming the necessity of

of his relinquishing the Public Service.
This Certificate D<sup>r</sup> Renton will, I imagine, grant without hesitation.

2. I would request your support in recommending this individual for the pension due to him under the rules in consideration of his past services and good conduct. and have instructed him to wait upon you at Conibatore in order to furnish you with all necessary information before submitting his claims to Government.

3. I may add that in the character recorded of him by Mr. Roberts, he is mentioned as an "intelligent and respectable public servant though somewhat advanced in years."
