a high character for

ports the application -

3. Khadr Miy'a
was suspended in 1839,
pending an enquiry into his conduct, and he does not appear to ~~have~~ have come out of it scatheless. A copy of the order passed on the occasion should have been submitted. The Calki will now supply the omission. Suspension does not, it is true, constitute a break rendering ~~previous~~ service not continuous, but, to enable them to judge of the Applicant's character, the Govt desire to have before them the grounds upon which the Calki found it necessary to

Suspend him.

4. Two years pre-
viously, or in 1837, Khadr Miy'a was removed from his post of Amir of Sundi Division for remissness in collecting the revenue. This break the Civil Auditor considers fatal
to his claim to reckon previous service. Referring however to the terms of the order of Mr Stouhouse, as set out in the 'Service Register', the Govt observe that the punishment awarded ~~was~~ hardly ^{regarded} ~~as~~ ^{dis-} missal, as, with the punishment, was coupled a promise of re-employment in a grade of equal

of 15th August 1835.

involvement, and the man was actually so employed within a very short space of time. In these circumstances ^{it does not appear that any} and as ~~no~~ charge of affecting his character for integrity was imputed to him, the Gov^t are ~~not disposed~~ unwilling to insist upon the strict enforcement of the rule which, in the case of a break occurring caused by disrepair "for misconduct", forbids the admission of previous service.

5. In 1833. Khān Mīyā was removed for having used illegal means in collecting the revenue, but he was informed that his "indiscretion" would be so bar to his re-employment. He was accordingly, ^{after} an interval of 9 months, appointed to a post of Rs 35 p.m., he having been previously in receipt of Rs 70. Unless this can be regarded in the light of suspension & degradation merely, it is clear that the break which occurred upon this occasion precludes the admission of previous service, but to enable the Gov^t to decide, it is necessary they should refer to the order of the Col^l, and they now desire that this be sent up submitted for their consideration.

6. It would have saved time and correspondence, if the Col^l

~~had sent the matter up~~ ~~in~~ had accompanied the papers with all
needed information.
