Sir,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government the hardship entailed on many old Servants among the Revenue and Police peons by their dismissal on the establishment of the new Police. This has as yet only taken effect in the Sub-division, and it had been my intention to wait its extension to the whole district before addressing the Government, for as however there will be a considerable interval before this occurs

Read letter from the Collector of Ganjam

Order thereon 10th January 1862 No. 12

The Collector of Ganjam transmits with this letter a list of the peons &c. who have been thrown out of employ in the Wadadala or Chicacole Taluq of his District by the introduction of the new Police Force, and to whom, he recommends the grant of gratuities corresponding to the length of each man's service, in accordance with the lately sanctioned rates. -

2 The list comprises the names of 51 individuals, and, from the fact of those being entered in it whose service does not exceed 3 years, it is supposed to include nearly every peon whose services have been dispensed with in the Taluq into which the new Police has, as yet, been introduced. —

3 The Government are unwilling to sanction the grant of pensions in so wholesale a manner, which has not been found necessary in other districts. Many of the men entered in the list now submitted by the Collector are ineligible for pension owing to the shortness of their service, and must also be capable of performing active service in the Police, or other departments, or have relatives who are in a condition to support them. — The list now before Government will therefore be returned to the Collector for revision with reference to the foregoing remarks. He will also, in transmitting the revised list, only include in it those men who have served for 20 years and upwards, and will specify their respective ages, and whether they have any relatives at present in public employ. —
