I have the honor to request the sanction of Government to disburse to his son the sum of Rs. 28-11-10 being the amount of pension for 26 days from 12th March to 6th April, to which he was entitled.

Sir,

In submitting the accompanying letter from the collector of Tinnevely with its enclosure, I have the honor to report that there does not appear to be on the records of this Office any precedent, by which this case can be governed.
I am of opinion, however, that the individual had no claim to pension before such was actually sanctioned by Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant.
