The following Extract from a Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors addressed to the Government of India in the Financial Department, No 75 of 1855, dated the 15th August is published for general information.

Para 3.— If an Uncovenanted Servant be dismissed for misconduct, and be subsequently readmitted to employment his first service is not to count for Pension. But with this exception, we shall allow twelve months to elapse between two periods of service without the servant forfeiting his claim to count the first period as well as the second towards the retiring pension. The privilege, however, of so reckoning the time of service can only apply to two periods. If there is any other interval, the service that may follow, cannot be counted as continuous
