service as Principal Sadr Ameen for more than 5 years when I would be entitled to a pension equal to half the salary of the post.

In the case of Krishna Rao the late Huzar Head Sherestadar and the Deputy Collector Soorappa who had been once removed from service and reinstated long time afterwards, the time that intervened their dismissal and reinstatement was, in consideration of the cessation of their service being at the requisition of the authorities, reckoned in the pension service time. I pray that a similar indulgence may be extended to me and though under Section 122 of the rules my standing of 41 years entitles me to half of the average pay of 2nd class Moonsiff, Sadr Ameen and Principal Sadr Ameen held by me during the last 5 years, yet, Your Excellency in Council will be pleased to add the necessary portion of time of my previous service as Moonsiff and Sadr Ameen to that of my service as Principal Sadr Ameen and grant a pension of 250 Rs or half the pay of the last office in which I am required to cease my service.
