Major A. J. P. Ewart,
Acting Deputy Paymaster,
Cannanore.

Sir,

Circumstance rendering it necessary for me to address you these lines, which I humbly hope you will be pleased to submit for the Consideration and decision of Government if you deem it expedient so to do, in order to remove the doubt I entertain in regard to my case.

I was the 1st writer of the Military Pay Department at Cannanore, having served in it zealously and faithfully for a period of 30 years & 3 months, but owing to my having been incapacitated to continue in the Service for any longer period from General debility and impaired sight, I was obliged to retire on Pension. My pension for life, was sanctioned by Government on the 11th February 1857 and I still continue to receive my stipend monthly as a Pensioner without any interruption. While retiring on Pension, I was a married man, and my wife also was living, but unfortunately she died in the year 1861, leaving me destitute without any family of Children Surviving to Comfort me at her loss. It is now nearly one and half year that I am left a widower, and I feel my destitution and bereavment in every respect so very miserable, that I cannot live happy without having one to feel the void left by my deceased wife, and in fact, I am rendered the more miserable of having been left alone, without any one to take care of me, and discharge the duties incumbent on a wife in an economical and domestic point of view. Under such Circumstance I feel the want of a wife to be a crying necessity for me, but as I find under the second blank columns of my Pension Certificate No. 2000 that an Italic note has reference to a clause of the General Rules providing against marriage, which I am apprehensive may affect my Pension in case of my again entering into a marriage state of life. I feel induced, induced, to represent my case to you, in the hope that the same may be laid before Government in due Course of time, and obtain a decision for me on this subject, although I am of opinion that this rule provide for widows nly, yet it is very desirable that the point may be settled by a reference being made to Government to remove doubt and misunderstanding.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most Obedt. Hble Servant.
