The very humble Petition of the Honorable
Board's old Lascar Moottoo

Humbly Sheweth

That in the last stage of life your petitioner has one prayer to submit to your Honorable Board, which, after the period he has been in your service, he feels your generous sympathy will not allow you to refuse.

Your petitioner would submit that he was first entertained in your Honorable Board's service in 1819 when Sir Thomas Munro was Governor of Madras, and that now after a space of 43 years, all of which he served under you, he feels enfee by age. Your petitioner would further submit that his sight fails him now, that he can with difficulty give that satisfaction in the discharge of his duties which he afforded in earlier years, and feeling as he does that his days are few in this world, he begs that your Honorable Board will take his case into consideration and recommend him to Governt for a gratuity; and as a further means of assistance in his old age, he craves that his son who is 24 years old and who has occasionally acted for him, may be entertained in his stead.

For this act of charity your petitioner will as in duty bound.

Ever Pray.
