Read letter from E. W. Bird Esq.^{re} Acting Civil Judge and Lay Trustee of the Church at Tranquebar dated 23rd July 1862. -

In their Proceedings dated 17th July last, the Government authorized the grant to J. I. Abraham, late organist of the Church at Tranquebar, of a gratuity equivalent to six months salary, on account of his long service, it being observed that servants on the Ecclesiastical Establishment such as clerks, Readers, Sextons &c. are not entitled to the benefits of the Superannuation Pension Rules. Mr. Bird now brings to the notice of Government that J. I. Abraham is one of the three servants or attached to Zion Church Tranquebar, when the Church was transferred in 1846 by the Danish Lutheran congregation to the Madras Government. When accepting the transfer, the Government undertook in their order 6th February 1846, No. 36 "to retain on pension these three servants of the Church."
