To,

The Right Honorable
the Governor in Council
Fort Saint George

The humble Memorial of C Sashiah, late Cantonment Cutwall, Saint Thomas' Mount

Respectfully Sheweth,

1 That agreeably to the Orders of Government dated the 8th February last No. 193, Judicial Department, the Arrears of Pay due to the Memorialist were paid to him up to date, and he was dismissed from his situation.

2 That under ordinary circumstances, Memorialist might be led to seek re-employment in the other Departments of Public Service as was done by parties similarly circumstanced; but as he felt himself incapacitated for further active duties by bodily infirmities and acute Rheumatism, as certified by Doctor G Mackay, he represented the matter to the Brigadier Commanding the Station, who was kind enough to submit an application for a Superannuation Pension in his behalf to His Excellency the Commander in Chief; that His Excellency returned it, however, with an intimation that Memorialist did not belong to the Class of Servants eligible for a pension – that under these circumstances, therefore, Memorialist is constrained to lay the following circumstances of his pitiful case before Government in the humble

hope that they will be pleased to take them into their favorable consideration and render him justice.

3 That Memorialists Services × under Government extend over a period of 23 years, during the greater portion of which he was continuously employed as English Writer and Interpreter — Offices which fully entitle him to the benefit of a retiring allowance — and that he at last filled the high and responsible situation of Cantonment Cutwall for upwards of 3 years on a Salary of Rupees 70 per Mensem till its abolition in February under the G.O. quoted in Para 1 of this Memorial.

× Enclosure B

4 That Memorialist has discharged the several duties which devolved on him from time to time to the entire satisfaction of his employers, and maintained a high character for diligence, zeal, and moral integrity throughout his public carrier, as will be evidenced by the accompanying Copies of testimonials × conferred on him by his Superiors.

× Enclosure C

5 That the duties of the Cutwall in this Cantonment were not of an ordinary character, such as those in the other Cantonments in the Presidency, but of a peculiarly responsible and trustworthy nature requiring great abilities and tact — a good knowledge of the Regulations and Acts of Government, and a thorough insight into the system of keeping accounts for Monies received into, and disbursed from the Treasury of the Police Court on various Accounts.

6 That in substantiation of the foregoing Statement, it may be observed that, prior to the introduction of the new system of Police in the Cantonment, the Cutwall was the Head of the Executive Police, and his position in this respect was analogous to that of a District Head of Police with this exception that he did not summarily dispose of cases on his own authority, but assisted the Superintendent of Police in doing so — that he was the Custodian of all monies received received

received into the Courts Treasury, and as such, did the duty of a Treasurer or Cash keeper — that he kept true and correct accounts of Receipts and disbursements, besides several other accounts noted in the margin × and thus acted in the capacity of an Accountant — Irrespective of the above duties, he attended to many others equally important as will be manifest from the accompanying List marked D.

× 1 General Account
2 Statement of Prisoners confined & released
3 Cattle fund Account
4 Award & remittances Account
5 Police fine Account
6 Public fund Account
7 Register of unclaimed property
8 Register of Warrants

7 That, it may be further observed that from the propinquity of the Cantonment to the limits of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, Robbers and other suspicious characters who had committed, and been charged with petty and heinous offences in the latter place, did not unfrequently find a shelter in the former, and it was not without strenuous exertions and utmost difficulty that they were apprehended and brought to justice — Moreover, the prevention of the Smuggling of Liquors, keeping the Cantonment in order and peace, and above all, the introduction of Municipal improvements, called for no small amount of energy, and that Memorialist assisted the Superintendent of Police in the discharge of the above important functions to the best of his knowledge and ability.

8 That the chief duties which Memorialist virtually performed in his last situation were, as already observed, those of a Head of Police, Treasurer, and Accountant, and that while the above classes of Servants are declared to be entitled to Pension individually, it is very hard that the combined services of 3 Offices performed by the Memorialist in the capacity of Cantonment Cutwall should be disallowed, and he be debarred from claiming a Superannuation Pension for no other reason than that the designation of his Office does not come under the Category of Servants eligible for Pension, without the slightest regard to the high Salary of Rupees 70 drawn by him in it.

9 That it may not be out of place to bring bring

bring here to the notice of Government that parties similarly employed in the other Cantonments appear to have been Pensioned× when applications in their behalf were submitted to Government through the Commissariat Department and that it was owing to Memorialist's misfortune that with such precedents before him, His Excellency the Commander in Chief viewed the application made in his behalf with disfavor.

× The Cantonment Cutwall in Vellore was Pensioned in 1852.

10 That Memorialist is encumbered with a large family; that the small salary of Rupees 70 drawn by him while in employ hardly sufficed to maintain himself in a respectable position; that he had not therefore the means to effect any saving so as to be of service to him when in an advanced stage of life — that the sudden dismissal with which he has now been visited reduces him to the lowest ebb of misery — and that unless he is relieved from it by the liberality of Government, he is sure to sink for want of even common necessaries of life.

11 That Government are fully aware that parties similarly displaced from their situations in the provinces in consequence of reduction of Establishments under Mr. Pelly's Scheme, have all been provided with adequate retiring allowances in cases in which they merited them, and that under all these circumstances therefore, Memorialist solicits that the boon conferred on them may be extended to him under parallel circumstances, and a pension granted to him, specially in consideration of the length of his service as English Writer and Interpreter

11 That Memorialist is fully sensible that in accordance with the rules in force, he cannot expect more than $\frac{1}{3}$ of the average of the allowances drawn by him during the last 5 years to be granted to him as Pension; but as his duties were of more than ordinary character, and in the performance thereof, he became debilitated and rendered unfit for further effective service, he humbly hopes that he

he will not be considered too ambitious, if with great deference and submission, he approaches the Government with the prayer that they will be so charitable as to direct a moiety of his salary being conferred on him as Pension as a special case, as otherwise, with the pittance he would receive under the rules, he could only live from hand to mouth and end his existence in Chill penury

13 That Memorialist is unwilling to encroach the precious time of Government with a long narrative of his deplorable circumstances, and begs therefore to conclude with an earnest entreaty that they will take them into their mature consideration and order a Suitable Pension to be granted to him — for which act of Kindness and justice, he as in duty bound shall.

Ever remain
With due respect & Submission
Right Honorable Sir, Your most obedient and humble Servant
C. Sashiah
Late Cantt. Cutwall —

I do hereby Certify that I have examined late Cantonment Cutwall Sashiah and find that he is unfit for any further Service and that his present state of health has not been produced by intemperance or other irregular habits
