From The Collector of Ganjam to the Civil Paymaster } (Dated 15th August 1862)

Report of the Civil Paymaster " 24th October "

Order thereon 8th December 1862 No. 390

The Collector of Ganjam submits a Register of Applications for Superannuation Pension from five servants on his Establishment, four of whom appear to have been thrown out of Employ by the abolition of their Offices.

2 In the case of the first individual, T. Seetaramia, the Collector submits that the applicant had served for nearly 29 years and was obliged to retire before completing the term of 30 years' service in consequence of the abolition of his his^x Office, ~~Tahsildar of Poobacoondah Taluq~~ and that he bears an unblemished character. He therefore recommends that, as a special case, a pension equal to half the average salary be allowed to the applicant.

^x Thasildar of Poobacoondah Taluq

3. The Civil Paymaster reports that T. Seetaramiah's service for a period of 21 years 10 months & 10 days, during which he was employed in Estates under the Court of Wards, cannot be verified from the records of his Office, but that assuming it to be correct, his service in all amounts to 28 years 10 months & 4 days, and that he is eligible to a pension equal to One-third of his average salary.

4. Resolved accordingly that a pension of Rs. (16) sixteen per mensem, equal to One third of the average monthly salary for the last five years, be granted to T. Seetaramia from the date on which he ceased to be employed.

With

5. With respect to the other four servants who are recommended by the Collector for a Superannuation pension, the Civil Paymaster reports that the greater portion of their respective service was passed in grades which do not qualify for pension, and that they are eligible therefore only to a gratuity equal to six months' salary.
