Many only made his application on the 16th December 1861. He it is true he was removed from his appointment in November of the previous year on account of bodily infirmity, and I am told in the office that it was in expectation of recovering and being able to resume duty, that induced him to defer his application for a Pension for so long a time.

I have the honor to be

2 Mr. Meade's letter will be forwarded to the Civil Paymaster for his information respecting the delay that took place in forwarding the application for Revision of Desikah Chetty.

3 The documents are not satisfied with the explanation now offered. The individual should have been called upon to submit his application for Revision, and warned that by delay he was running a chance of losing it altogether.
