Madras 16th January 1863

Sir,

I, Rungia Naidoo most respectfully beg to bring the following unfortunate Circumstances to your favorable consideration.

[illegible] being transferred from Madras to [illegible] at Bangalore, I have drawn my Pension at your Office for the months of August and September 1862. Soon after having been attacked with severe fever, I was compelled to ask for a last Pay Certificate to return to Madras; but not having been favored with it, I was obliged to leave that place for the benefit of my health. On my Return, I represented the matter to Colonel Marshall, the Military Secretary to Government and was ordered to produce the last Pay Certificate and letter of Retransfer to Madras thro' you. I have not drawn my Pension for the mon[illegible] to great [illegible] ber 1862, and as I have [illegible] you will be inconvenience for expenses [illegible] two months pleased to order my Pen[illegible] Naidoo, to be delivered to my [illegible] who brings this Application [illegible] Military a last Pay Certificate and transfer to Madras Secretary to Government [illegible] to suffering to this day

to draw my Pension here.

My Pension Certificate &c. herewith sent and I request that the necessary Entry may be made thereon and returned with other Documents.

Beg to remain
Your most obedient Servant
R Evans
