This is to certify that Loobien late Dafterband of Terumangalum Talug is in my opinion unfit for further service in consequence of the infirmities of old age which will physically and permanently disqualify him for further active employment and that these have not been caused by intemperance or irregular habits.

Sir, Referring to the Acting Dy.
Secretary's Memorandum No. 28 dated the 11th Instant I have the honor to submit that the individual alluded to had been continually on leave on account of sickness. On looking to his application for a further extension of leave & considering his age & the nature of the work he was suffering under, I thought it necessary for the interests of Government to discharge at once a servant who was infirm & unfit for active service. The man through ignorance of the rules I presume, failed to apply for gratuity at once.

Financial Department,

Sir

It has been ruled by the Government of India under date 17th December 1861, No. 14820, that in cases of application for a superannuation Pension, the Medical Certificate of unfitness for further service should be submitted at the time of retirement, that every instance of deviation from this principle should be submitted for their orders. It is not expressly stated whether the same reference is required in the case of an application for the minor privilege of gratuity, but, under the order of 11th October 1861 No. 13208, pensions and gratuities are to be regulated by the same rules. I am accordingly will lay before the President in Council the accompanying application of Subhanyan, late a Dafterband in the Madras

2 The service of this applicant has been verified by the Civil Paymaster for a period of 23 years, which will entitle him to a gratuity of 6 months salary, or Rs. 42.
He has also served in other appointments which cannot be verified from the Paymaster's records for an additional period of 6 years and nine months. He was discharged by the Collector as unfit for active duty on the 22nd January 1862, but, apparently "through ignorance of the rules," neglected to obtain a Medical Certificate till March 1863. His Excellency the Governor in Council does not recommendation that the grant of a gratuity of Rs. 42
