9th May 1863

Honored Sir,

In submitting the following for your favorable consideration, I am led, to entertain sanguine hopes that the exigency of my case will prompt your humanity to support this my humble application for a gratuity, with an official recommendation, so as to enable me to obtain Six Months Pay as Donation, for the laborious duties I have rendered to the Government, for the last 30 years vizt. from 1st April, 1833 to 30th April 1863, and thereby protect a poor Indian like me under the auspices of the British Govt.

I was entertained, in this Department, in the year 1833 as above, and served, always to the entire satisfaction, of my superiors, as you are also aware of. After your auspicious appointment, as Paymaster, I was treated, with the same leniency, as was shown to me by your Predecessors, but my old age and bodily infirmities incapacitate me for further duty. It therefore begs that you will, under the foregoing circumstances, be pleased to exert your influence, in obtaining for me the boon I solicit as a Compensation for my past services.

Yours

This act of everlasting favor will place me in a position of spending my last days in repose and ease, and I shall ever feel thankful and infinitely obliged to you.

I beg leave to remain

Honored Sir

Your most Obedt & humble

Servant
