34
Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 12th August 1856.

Read the following papers.

No. 77. From J. GOLDINGHAM, Esq., Commissioner for the Northern Circars; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Fort St. George; dated Vizagapatam, 31st July 1856, No. 101.

SIR,

As the business of the Commission in the Northern Circars has closed, I beg to report to Government that Mr. J. D. Jordan, the Uncovenanted Assistant, has at all times discharged his duties efficiently with unwearied application and the strictest integrity. The last qualification renders Mr. Jordan's services of peculiar value.

No. 78. Minute by the Honorable WALTER ELLIOT, Esq., dated 8th August 1856.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the justice of the opinion recorded by the Commissioner. During the five years that Mr. Jordan was in charge of my office in the Northern Circars, I found him invariably zealous and attentive to his duties often working till a late hour to get through a press of work. On more than one occasion, he resisted and gave notice of attempts to corrupt his integrity which proved more successful in other quarters. I consider Mr. Jordan to be a most deserving public servant.

No. 79. ORDER THEREON, No. 859; dated 12th August 1856.

Ordered that the foregoing Papers be recorded.

Secretary to Government.

DURING the short period, I have officiated in the Auxiliary Court of Chingleput, I have had frequent opportunities of witnessing the zeal displayed by Mr. Jordan in the discharge of the public duties. I consider his qualifications of superior order, and worthy of much higher employment. I regret much that it has not been in my power to promote him to the situation of Munsiff, feeling confident that he would from his integrity, knowledge of the Tamil language, and of the general duties of a Court, do credit to an appointment, to which, I hope he will, ere long, be promoted.

I have much gratification in being able to record the above testimonial.

(Signed) J. G. S. BRUERE,

Acting Asst. Judge.

Cuddalore, 24th Feb. 1837.

The Bearer of this Mr. Jordan has been employed by me in the Auxiliary Court at Cuddalore for three years in the Translator's Department.

I have now the greatest satisfaction in giving him this testimonial of his good conduct during the above period; as a public servant nothing can exceed his attention to the duties accorded him, and in his private character, he is also unexceptionable.

Nothing will give me greater pleasure than learning that he has succeeded to the situation of Court Translator, in the event of a vacancy occurring; as I am confident it would be exceedingly difficult to find a person so well qualified in every way for the important duties of that Office.

(Signed) W. MOREHEAD,

Cuddalore, February 25, 1837.

Mr. JORDAN,

SIR,

I have received your note, and as you desire it, express my opinion of your translations which are not only good and correct, but drawn up with care. I shall be glad to hear that the respectability of your character and ability as a public servant go in for your promotion and have no doubt they will when an opportunity offers. I cannot be a contributor to your Mission Society, as I am a periodical contributor to too many other institutions of the same sort.

I remain, your sincere friend,

(Signed) M. LEWIN,

Acting 1st Judge.

13th January 1840.

Mr. Jordan has been attached to the Auxiliary Court at Cuddalore since 1834. In 1838 he was appointed by me to the Office of Court Translator. To his previous conduct he bears high testimonials: and I have much pleasure in adding that since he has been employed under me I have had every cause to be satisfied with the manner in which he has discharged his duties and concur in the good opinion entertained of him by my predecessor. His exertions have not been confined to the mere duties of his Office, but he has, with much zeal, and activity, rendered himself very useful in the miscellaneous business of the Court. I shall be glad, at any time, to hear of his future success and further promotion in the service, for which I consider him well qualified.

(Signed) C. R. BAYNES,

Assistant Judge.

December 31st, 1840.

Mr. Jordan Translator in the Auxiliary Court at Cuddalore has given me every satisfaction in the discharge of his important duties. Considering his abilities and integrity, I have no hesitation in stating that I consider him well qualified to fill the situation of District Moonsiff with credit to himself and advantage to the State.

(Signed) C. T. KAYE,

Asst. Judge.

Cuddalore, 1st January 1842.

During the time I have been at the head of this Court, I have had every reason to be satisfied with Mr. Jordan, and concur in all that Mr. Morehead has said, and appointed him to act as District Moonsiff of Cuddalore for a short time; and it will afford me great pleasure to learn that he has been promoted either to the Office of District Moonsiff, or that of Sudr Ameen.

(Signed) J. H. BELL,

Assistant Judge.

Cuddalore,
Auxiliary Court,
Sept. 15th, 1843.

I have known Mr. Jordan above three years as Sheristadar of the Civil and Session Court of Cuddalore, as regards general intelligence a very perfect knowledge of the Regulations and universal information on all Judicial matters, I consider him much better qualified for the Office of District Moonsiff or Sudr Ameen than the great majority of the Office at present holding those employments. I consider Mr. Jordan to be a very zealous public servant, and a man of strict integrity.

(Signed) W. BABINGTON,

Civil and Session Judge.

Coonoor, June 14th, 1848.

WALTAIR, 13th April 1853.

MR. JORDAN.—Some time ago I sent to England for the accompanying which I desire to present to you in token of my satisfaction with the mode in which you have conducted the business of the Office, I know that on more than one occasion temptations have been offered to draw you from the strict path of duty which you indignantly resisted, I have also always found you ready to give up the whole of your time to the performance of the public business which particularly in the Masulipatam District often kept you in Office till 9 or 10 o'clock at night, and I feel bound to acknowledge the cheerfulness and readiness with which you have met these calls to sacrifice your hours of rest and relaxation. In begging you to accept this small piece of plate, I will add my sincere wish that your past good conduct will lead hereafter to your further advancement in the public service, and I remain always your friend.

(Signed) WALTER ELLIOT,

Comr. Northern Circars.

To MR. J. D. JORDAN,

Uncovenanted Assistant in the Board of Revenue and Manager of the Office of the Commissioner of N. Circars.

WALTAIR, 12th December 1851.

MR. J. D. JORDAN, Uncovenanted Assistant in the Board of Revenue, accompanied me in charge of my Office with part of the Board's Establishment, when deputed to the Northern Circars in June 1849. From that time to the present he has conducted all the duties of the Office greatly to my satisfaction, not only by his assiduity and attention to business, but by his integrity and trustworthiness. Mr. Jordan's previous service has been passed chiefly in the Judicial line; and he is desirous of returning to that Department, for which I consider that his Character and qualifications, particularly his intimate acquaintance with the Regulations and practice of the Court peculiarly fit him.

(Signed) WALTER ELLIOT,

Comr. Northern Circars.

MR. JORDAN.—I can add little to the excellent testimonials you have received from the late and present Commissioners, but I have great satisfaction in bearing testimony to your conduct during the time of connection with the Commission, you have continued to exercise the same ability, industry and thorough integrity which have won for you the approbation and esteem of your superiors, I shall be glad to hear of your advancement to some of the higher situations open to the Uncovenanted Service, for which you possess special qualifications.

Your friend and well-wisher,

(Signed) H. NEWILL,

Asst. Comr.

WALTAIR, Nov. 1855.

13th April 1859.

I have much pleasure in giving Mr. Jordan these few lines to show the high opinion I entertain of him. It is now 24 years since I first knew him, and for the last 9 years, I have belonged to the same Office as himself. His diligence, integrity and willingness, have rendered him a valuable public servant, and it is with much pleasure that I have lately seen him selected to the highest class, yet given of Deputy Collector's.

Member of the Board of Revenue.
