held by this individual, and his period of service in each, and total in all, will be seen, - he was employed in the Courts in this Zillah from 1818 - I am satisfied from an examination of the Public Testimonials he possesses, that he was continuously employed in the Juntoo Zillah from 1824 until the abolition of the Juntoo Principal Sadr Ameer Court in September 1847 - on the 16th October 1848 he came here, being without employ for one year one month and eight days. his service would therefore calculate 36 years - 8 months & 17 days.

4 His testimonials speak favorably of his Conduct and the Cocanada Moonseiff reports him to be a man of good Character.

Sir,

In reply to your Memoranda Nos 148 & 232 dated the 9th April & 30th May last respectively, I have the honor to inform you that the records of the late Auxiliary Comt show nothing with reference to the services of Copellee Pashagerow, but it seems that this individual was paid from the allowances of the District Munsiff and Sadre Suin under the old system which existed in 1831 & 1833, and his name was not therefore inserted in the returns furnished to your office during that period.
