Memo.

Keramat Maistry's case is referred again to us from Calcutta for consideration -

It appears to me that the reasons given for refusing his application in the order of Jan 30 1862 referred to in order of 4 5 Jan 1862 are not valid? that is not fair to tell a man for not giving pensions after people have quit the service, when they have been turned out by abolition of office & have been trying to get something out of Govt, & employ a pension ever since, though that be two years time -

The heads in his service are perhaps a better ground for refusing the pension? but we have nothing to show how they were caused, it is quite possible that Peter having been in the Government - Depart. they may have been wrong to want of work for him - i.e. from no fault of his -

Financial Department.

Sir

I am directed to state, in returning the enclosed original Petition from Verranna Maistry, endorsed to this Government, for consideration, by the Under Secretary to the Government of India in the Public Works Department, that the Petitioner's claim to Pension was rejected by this Government because not admissible under the Rules.

2. Should his claim, however, receive the favorable consideration of the Government of India, His Excellency in Council would willingly acquiesce in the grant of some allowance to an old servant

After dropping the Supreme Court
I say at once that referring for a technical objection seems advisable to save the Government a small pension - Perhaps Rs 5 would be suitable. The pension ployed under Government in various ways for nearly fifty years. His Excellency would suggest a pension of 5 Rupees per mensem as a suitable provision.

An application in the usual form for sanction of a pension of this amount is forwarded herewith.
