Civil Pension Department

Notification

Fort St. George, 4th August, 1863. No. 226.

The attention of all Heads of Offices is directed to Para 3 of the General Rules for Pension to Imcovenanted Servants published in the Supplement to the Fort St. George Gazette of the 26th June last, by which it will be seen that all applicants for a Superannuation allowance must be examined by the Principal Inspector General of the Medical Department if serving at the Presidency or by a Military Invaliding Committee if serving elsewhere within a moderate distance of a station where a Military

16
Military Invaliding Committed is periodically assembled.

The Governor in Council directs that as a general rule the words "moderate distance" shall be considered to mean within 50 miles of such a station.
The Certificate of a single Medical Officer will be accepted only in cases where there is no station containing two Medical Officers within 50 miles of the place where the applicant for pension is serving.
