In conformity to the 11th

Pensions published in the Fort St. George Gazette dated 22nd December 1835, and in accordance with the Proceedings of the Madras Government dated 26th April that you will submit to the Government of Mr Luke De Prager, Deputy Clerk on the Establishment of my Court, for a Pension.

2. Mr. L. D. Prager was up to the end of June last, the Head Writer of the

the Civil and Session Court of Massachusetts; from which date that Court being abolished, and as I had received instructions to form the establishment of the Court of Small Causes from the Ministerial servants of the late Civil and Session Court, Mr. S. D. Fraser was appointed Deputy Clerk, but never entered upon his duties from family afflictions, and he took the earliest opportunity of applying to retire on Pension on his former salary. Hence, I have entered his former service in the accompanying Register.

3. The specific information required on the points indicated in clause 8th of the Rules is contained in the enclosed Extract from the Register of Unconvenanted servants on the Establishment of the late Civil & Session Court.

at this station, and the Register prescribed by clause 11th; all of which are transmitted herewith.

4. I beg to report that his general character and conduct during the period of his servitude, as appears from the official Records, and testimonials granted to him by different public officers, have been satisfactory; but being unable to serve any longer from his ^{advanced} age, and shortness of sight, and other bodily infirmities, he is desirous of retiring from the service; and I beg to recommend his prayers to favorable consideration.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.
