Postmaster Madras

Sir,

I beg respectfully to inform you that the distance of my residence to the Deputy Collector's office being too great for me to attend for the purpose of drawing my pension in consequence of my decrepid state, nevertheless, not being in a position to defray the expenses of a carriage in consequence of my inadequate income, I beg therefore you would be pleased to make a provision for drawing my pension from the Post Office at the Mount, for which act of kindness I shall feel exceedingly thankful.
