Sir,

Appasami Pillai an English Accountant in my office having applied for a gratuity, I have the honor to forward the accompanying list of the services of the applicant.

2. The whole period of

Appasami Pillai's service amounts to 12 - 5 - 19. but of this only 7 years 2 months and 25 days could be reckoned as service under the rules.

3. Appasami Pillai has lost the use of his right hand from Rheumatism and from the Surgeon's opinion there seems to be no chance of his perfect recovery again.

4. The accompanying medical certificate granted by the Billa Surgeon certifies to Appasami Pillai's infirmities for further service.

5. Under these circumstances I beg to recommend that the Government will be pleased to sanction a gratuity of Rs 90 which is equivalent to six months salary.

Report of the Civil Paymaster.

Service	Salary
7-2-25	15

The Off^r Civil Paymaster has the honor to report that the services of Appasaumi Pillai, late English accountant in the Salem Collector's Office, are verified from the records of his Office from 7th May 1856 to 31st July 1863.

His service from 1st October 1851 to 30th October 1852 and from 14th July 1853 to 6th May 1856 cannot be verified, but assuming it to be correct his service in all amounts to years 11 1 27. He appears to have resigned his office on the 31st October 1852 and remained unemployed until the 23rd February 1853. On the day following he obtained an acting situation on full pay (the permanent holder of which was under suspension) and remained in it until the 3rd July 1853. Should Government allow Appasaumi the benefit of this service as the permanent incumbent will not be allowed to reckon it in his favor, Appasaumi's service will then amount in all to years 11 6 7. Of his service of 11 1 27 Appasaumi can reckon only years 7 3 14 under clause 14 of the new Rules, agreeably to which he is eligible to a Gratuity.
