Sir,

In reply to your Memorandum of the 21st Instant No. 557, I have the honor to inform you that Palamalahada Pillai has only very lately made an application for gratuity, and on ascertaining his service, it was duly submitted to you

2. Many of the people thrown out of employ by the reduction of of establishments do not apply for gratuity until they see no chance of being reemployed, under the impression that they will lose their former service or have to refund the money received, & as they observe that many of the discharged servants have been re-admitted into the service. I do not think it necessary to volunteer payment of gratuity to them when they do not desire it.

I have the honor to be
Sir
