Pension Department,

Fort Saint George.

Sir,

With reference to the Order of Government notified in the Fort Saint George Gazette dated 22nd May 1863, Page 554, I have the honor to inform you that I have addressed the Collector of Madras requesting that the Superannuation Pension granted by Government, to Appasawmy, late Head Storekeeper on the Commissariat Establishment at Singapore, Certificate No 2550, may be made payable to the Pensioner in the District of Chengleput, from the 1st February 1863, as the party has returned to the Coast from Singapore in bad health, & wishes to draw his stipend at that Station.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant.
