Translation of an Arjee addressed by Marahatamany Mahadevi widow of Benach Sing late a Sirdar on the Meriah Agency Establishment to Captain R. A.
 Marshall Junior & Assistant Agent

My late husband rendered to Government meritorious services as a Sirdar. A pension was granted him, but without enjoying it he died on the 29th of August 1863. I then reported this, both to yourself and the Collector; but I do not know whether my report had reached you or not.

Note
 This was never received.

My late husband lived very respectably, as was the case with my ancestors; but Crissa Agency on the 29th August last which was reported to me only the other day and to forward herewith translation of an Arzee presented by his widow to my Assistant Captain Marshall requesting that the arrears of pension due to her deceased husband may be disbursed to her from the date on which he ceased to draw pay in the Crissa Agency (viz 1st June 1862) to the date of his death and to continue the allowance to her during her life.

I request that the Gov^t will be pleased to accord their sanction for disbursing these 154

arrears of pension.

With regard to the widow's request to have the pension continued to her during her life I beg to inform the Gov^t
