J. S. Foster Esquire
Collector of Gajam

Of

J. D. Sini Esquire

Secretary to Government
Fort St George

Sir,

Adverting to order of Government dated 8th Instant No 390 forwarding a pension Certificate for one out of five applicants recommended by me for Pensions in consequence of the abolition of their appointments and

P. Venkatarao
D. Venkatarao
K. Gommiah
J. Venkatarao

Sanctioning gratification only to the other four on the ground that a portion of their service was in situations where Salary of which was below 10 Rupees.

I think it only just to point out that the application of the rule above alluded to to these four persons involves great hardship and as I think will

will be admitted / some injustice also, for this reason that the appointments which they formerly held on salaries below 10 Rupees owing to the very inadequate rate of public salaries at that period in Pajand are now in every instance remunerated by salaries above that minimum.

To apply this rule in these cases would simply be to punish these officials for having been so unfortunate as to have formerly drawn salaries now admitted to have been insufficient. Moreover the rule has never hitherto been so applied in this District, and there is scarcely an old servant of the highest grade who has not formerly passed a portion of his early service as a Jomashita on less than 10 Rupees a month. I venture therefore to submit the case for the further consideration

Consideration of Government and to suggest that in the case of public servants who may have commenced their career in districts where very small salaries were formerly given to Jomashitas the rule should be qualified so far as to admit such periods of service to count for pensions, if under the prevailing rates for public establishments a salary above the minimum would have been drawn.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most Obedient servant

Order Arron 10th February 1863 W-40

The Gov: in Council is unable to see any injustice in the cases advocted to by the Collector of Saugam. As was observed in a recent order, ⁺ when somewhat similar ^{assumptions} were brought forward, the fact that the rates of wages have risen during the last few years, forms no good ground for reducing, but

but rather for raising, the minimum pay which renders service advissible as qualifying for pension. The old servants alluded to, when they commenced their career, must have been fully cognizant
of the rule in question, and altho' it may press more heavily upon them than on persons more recently entertained, this circumstance alone affords no just cause for complaint.

The salaries formerly allowed in Ganjam may have been small in comparison with some other districts, but Ganjam is not alone in that respect, and it would be impossible to draw an ^{impartial} line of distinction. ~~H. S. in C. is~~ ~~not therefore prepared to~~ ~~except any District from~~ ~~the strict application of~~ ~~the rule.~~ ^{Mr. W. H. having} Having been laid down generally, it should be as universally applied.

Mr. Forbes, it is observed, states that it has never hitherto been acted on in Ganjam, but H. S. in C. is not aware what ground he may have for ^{the} such an assertion. It need not necessarily have been operative, because in some few cases it, provisionally, have been overlooked.
