From
The Principal Sadr Amin
of Cochin

To
The Civil Paymaster
Madras

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that an application has been made to me for gratuities by four of the Court Peons as per annexed list who were discharged on the 23d of October 1862, when the duty of guarding the Court records was taken up by the Police under the Proceedings of the Madras Government 6th August 1861.

Proceedings Madras Government 26th April 1862. Pension Department No. 137.

I respectfully request that the four individuals mentioned

C 1171

mentioned in the accompanying List may be recommended to Government to receive donations under the gratuity rules in consideration of their having served 24-18-12 and 8 years, respectively.

As a temporary measure, two of them, Sheik Moidin, and Mathai are permitted to serve in the Batta Establishment of this Court.

The services of the applicants have been tested by referring to the Diary of the Court and Pay Lists.
