I do hereby certify that I have examined S. Manjonnathaya. He is 58 years old, is suffering from no disease but simply from the infirmities usually attendant on such an age, such as dimness of vision, failing memory and stiffness of the joints.

I consider him incapable of any active exertion either mental or physical.

There is no reason to think that this infirmary has been caused by intemperance or other irregular living.
