Memorandum

In April 1859^{49?} it was reported to the Chief Secretary that M Comarasawmy was in the habit of taking home Papers from the Records and giving Copies to interested parties. The Chief Secretary ordered the Record Keeper to lodge a Complaint in the Police when Mr. Elliot the Chief Magistrate issued a search warrant but nothing was found in any way to implicate Comarasawmy. He was however required to give bail for 2 or 3 months, during which time his pay in the Office was stopped.
