I do hereby Certify that Monure Venkatadri late Surnuldar of Ponnur an applicant for Pensions is in my opinion incapacitated by old age and defective vision for the further performance of active duty.

I am also of opinion the state of health by which the applicant is rendered unfit for further service, is not occasioned by intemperance or other irregular habits.

During this period he bore a good character. He was thrown out of employment when the new Taluk arrangement was introduced. The applicant is quite unfit for further active service as certified by the Civil Surgeon at this station. The delay in sending an application for pension was owing to frequent references to the old records of the late Guntoor Collectorate. The Collector begs to recommend, that one third pension may be granted to the applicant. A list of the applicant's private leaves is sent herewith.	14	Pithua District Collector's Treasury.
