The Deputy Secretary to Government.
Madras.

Sir,

In returning the papers received with your letter, No 73, dated 1st March 1864. I am directed to state, with reference to the Civil Pay Master's report, which influenced the grant of a gratuity of six months pay to Ponumbala Pillay, that the Civil Pay Master erred in taking into account for gratuity the service (on an establishment paid from a lump sum), which in that very report, he excluded from reckoning towards pension.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

W. William
2nd March 1864

Your most obedient servant

Ed. H. Cunningham
