To,

J. L. Lushington Esq.
Acting Account General
Respected Sir,

I beg to state that ever since I was admitted on the Establishment I continued to discharge the duties entrusted to me to the satisfaction of my superiors and my services extend over a period of 13 years I am now about 59 years old and the infirmities of age coupled with sickness now stand a bar to my further service in the office with usefulness I have therefore no other alternative left than to resign my situation from tomorrow the 1st Proximo.

I humbly request you will be pleased to accept this my resignation and recommend my services to the favorable consideration of Government for a Pension or Gratuity to be granted as it may seem fit under the revised Pension rules.

True Copy I beg to remain &c
J. P. Mauriappah

Respectfully
