From The Commissary General
To The Deputy Secretary to Government Pension Department
Fort St. George.-

1. In reply to Memo: of the 8th Dec^r 1863, the Commissary General has the honor to inform the Deputy Secretary to Government that the delay in submitting the appli-cation of a Pension for Mr. Culpepper late Commissariat Surveyor Northern Division was occasioned from the following circumstances.-

2. Frequent references had to be made on the subject to the Executive Commissariat Officer Masulipatam and Mr. Culpepper's services had also to be verified by the Commissary of Commissariat Accounts, and Controller of Military Finance, thus causing correspondence which had all to be completed, before pension could be applied for.-

3. When submitting the application Through the Controller the delay experienced in verifying this man's services, was brought
