No. 312.

Civil Pension Department

Notification

Saint George 26th July 1864

It is apprehended, that disappointment and distress may attend the working of the rules for the grant of gratuities to public servants dismissed on reduction of establishments, from their not being informed that the ^{acceptance} ~~grant~~ of gratuity carries with it forfeiture of all claims to pension for ^{previous} ~~past~~ services, and that such ^{previous} ~~past~~ service can only be admitted to count for pension on the condition of refund of the gratuity.

The Heads of offices are accordingly enjoined to explain distinctly to applicants for gratuities the rules on the subject, and to state in their

Letter

Letter of application that this has been done.
