I certify that I have examined
Venkata Subbiah Sheristadar of Velloorpocum Taluk.
He is 60 years of age & suffering from enlarged testicles, not the result of irregular habits, and in my opinion he is unfit for any service in which much active personal exertion is required.

Official Memorandum.

Adverting to the acting Civil Paymasters official Memorandum dated 27th Ultimo, N^o 654, the Collector of South Arcot has the honor to state that the forwarding in the order issued by M^r. Wood, the late Collector, to Venkata Subbiah, Tahsildar of Ellavanasore Taluk is somewhat indefinite, the sentence running thus: "you are relieved from the Tahsildary Post." From which it is to be inferred that Venkata Subbiah was neither suspended nor dismissed, but had simply been relieved & sent far to the Hoogoor in view to his being transferred to an inferior Post, which was subsequently arranged. That he was not suspended is further shown by the fact that no report of the kind was made to the Board of Revenue, which should have been done if Venkata Subbiah had been formally suspended. —
