first entertainment in the Sayer Department his name is given as Streenivaſsa Dêva Row. On the introduction of Mr. Pelly's revised Scale of establishments, his name appears to have been given as Deva Row only without the prefixe Streenivaſsa. The individual Deva Row has also given a deposition regarding the names he used to be called by, which is herewith submitted, but the reason he aſsigns to the omiſsion of the prefix Streenivaſsa is for the sake of brevity, he also produced the enclosed Takid iſsued to him on the occasion of his transfer to the 14th Aptt. Collector's establishment, where he is called by his proper name Streenivaſsa Dêva Row. It is I believe owing to this discrepancy in the names that the Civil Pay-master was not able to verify the services of Deva Row from returns submitted to his Office. I beg to return the Official Memo. from the Civil Pay-master which accompanied your Memo, under reply.
