G.O. No. 390 ~~Press~~ Mis.

Dated 17-9- 1864

Not to be folded or roughly handled

To,

The Civil Judge of Salem.

Sir,

I most respectfully beg to submit this my application for Pension which I request you will be good enough to forward for the favorable Consideration of Government.

I entered the public service on the 12th Augt. 1832 and after having held various appointments rose to the Office of Moonsiff of Darampoory in 1855 which I held till the end of 1863 when my services were dispensed with in consequence of the abolition of the Court. The period of my service amounts to 31 years and 4 Months and entitles me to half pay, under the revised Pension rules, without the production of a medical certificate, from the 1st of January 1864.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servt.

M. Sabapathee Moodily
