Rs. 50	from 1st September 1864.
From the appearance of the Applicant, and the inquiry made by me I believe his age as given by himself is correct. R. Venkateshwar Rao, Collector's Office, 31st August 1864. There is not a break of flow during the whole period of applicant's service, and his conduct and character appear to have been all along good. In 1851 from the good character he then bore, he appears to have been called to Travancore on special duty by the special Assistant Collector Mr. Bird. For the foregoing reasons he is recommended for the maximum rate of Pension allowed by the Rules. J. W. Bird, Collector Balijipalli Nagaya appears to have had no other than private means during his whole period of service. J. W. Bird, Collector
