The Government of India however authorized the disbursement to Komen Nair from 1st May 1864 of a Pension of only Rs. 68 a month, stated to be equal to half his average Monthly Salary, pending the result of a recommendation to the Right Hon^{ble} the Secretary of State for India for the grant of an additional Pension of one fourth of

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter
From The Collector of Malabar (Here entered September 1864, No. 127)

Order thereon 5th October 1864 No. 415.

It appears from the above letter that Homen Wair to whom a pension of Rs. 68 was awarded under the Government Order, No. 253 of 11th June, 1854, was retained in the public employ, owing to the exigencies of the service till the 31st May 1864.

2. The average of his salary for the last five years of his service, thus extended, is Rs. 141-1-7, and not Rs. 136, as was the case on the assumption on which his former average was computed.

3. The Governor in Council is accordingly pleased to sanction an increase of the pension of Homen Wair from Rs. 68 to Rs. 70-8- in per mensem, to have effect from the 1st June last.
