Sir,

In reply to your official Memorandum dated the 29 Ultimo No 26 I have the honor to inform you that the Jail Diary contains two entries one of which is to the effect that one Mahomed Esoch Son of Mahomed Madar was entertained as Jail Peon on the 18th Augt. 1819, and the other sets forth that one Esuff was, at his own request, dismissed from office of Jail Peon on the 11th June 1834, and to state that the person alluded to in these two entries appears to be identical with the individual mentioned by you as two of the old Jail Peons named Faydar Khan and Abdool Rasool who served with him for a number of years, declared that he used to be called Mahomed Esock alias Mahomed Esuff and that his father's name was Mahomed Madar —

I have the honor to be
Sir
