Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature, at Madras. Appellate side.
25th November 1863.

Read letter dated the 12th November 1863, from the Civil Judge of Madura stating with reference to the Proceedings of the High Court, dated 5th November 1863 that Danakoody Moodeliar, the Acting District Moonsiff of Madura, is reported by the Zillah Surgeon to be incapacitated for further duty owing to confirmed deafness.

Read also Petition dated 13th idem from Danakoody Moodeliar praying to be allowed to resume his permanent appointment as District Moonsiff of Nellicambalum in the Zillah of Tinnevelly, and to remain in charge of that Court till the 4th of March next, when, if pronounced unfit for duty, he will be able to retire on a higher pension than he is now entitled to.

pronounced that he is unfit for further duty -

1. With the certificate now before the Court, it is clear that Danakoody Moodeliar is wholly incapable of performing Judicial duties, and it is quite impossible for the Judges to comply with his request to be allowed to continue in charge of a Court.

2. The Civil Judge will therefore take steps to procure for Danakoody Moodeliar the pension to which he may be entitled, which as it appears to the Judges, will "be regulated by Clause 3 Section 5 of the New Rules".

Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras. 18th January 1864.

Read letter, dated the 7th December 1863, from Danoskody Moodeliar, representing that his examination by the Zillah Surgeon of Madura was of a cursory kind, and that his difficulty in hearing is only felt when he converses with any European Gentleman for the first time, and requesting that he may be examined by a Committee of Medical officers.

Read also letter, dated the 30th Decr. 1863, from the Acting Civil Judge of Tinnevelly, submitting a Certificate granted by two Medical Officers to the effect that, having undergone treatment for deafness and dyspepsia, Danoskody Moodeliar can now hear a person speaking Tamil in a moderately raised tone of voice at the distance of 5¼ yards, and English at the distance of a yard and a half.

1. The Judges decline to modify the orders already passed in Danoskody Moodeliar's Case, unless Dr. Wilson, on a fresh examination of him, sees good reason for acknowledging that he has so much improved in his hearing as to be fit to carry on his ordinary duties in a Court house, where he will not be so near to the witnesses or Speakers as he appears to have been to the Acting Civil Judge of Tinnevelly and Dr. Gillies when they conversed with him.-

2. A Copy of the Certificate furnished by Drs. Gillies and Dempster, of the Communication from the Acting Civil Judge of Tinnevelly, and of Danoskody Moodelliar's letter, will be forwarded to the Civil Judge of Madura for reference in the event of Danoskody Moodeliar availing himself of the option given him in this order of appearing again before Dr. Wilson.

Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras. 15th February 1861.-

Read letter, dated the 3rd Instant, from the Acting Civil Judge of Tinnevelly forwarding, for the consideration of the High Court, a Petition from Danoskody Moodeliar, the late District Moonsiff of Nelliambalow.

The Petition from Danoskody Moodely is dated the 3rd Instant. He has had ample time since the despatch to Tinnevelly of the High Court's order dated the 18th Ultimo, to proceed to Madura. The Judges resolve to intimate to him, through the Civil Judge of Tinnevelly, that the option of reappearing before Dr. Wilson at Madura will be withdrawn, unless he affords Dr. Wilson an opportunity of reconsidering the opinion he has given, by the end of the current month.
