Sir

With reference to your Chief Assistant's Memo of the 19th Instant No. 134, I have the honor to inform you that Madava Rao Sherishtadar of Dharapuram Taluq has always borne a good character and is a proper object for the bounty of Government as will appear from the accompanying copy of a letter from the Sub Collector dated 26th Instant No. 223.

2 Coimbatore is not a station at which a Military invaliding Committee is periodically assembled, consequently a Certificate signed by the only Medical officer of the Station was forwarded, as has been done on more than one former occasion, and I request that Government will be pleased to accept the same under para 3 of the General rules appended to the Pension rules of the 8th June 1863

Sir

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration and orders of Government an application for a Superannuation Pension on behalf of Madava Row Sheristadar of Dharapuram Taluq of this District.

2. The total services of Madava Row extend over a period of 30 years 9 months of which deducting 2 years i.e. the service before the applicant attained the age of 22 years, the net period is 28 years 9 months. I concur with the Sub Collector in his recommendation (vide enclosed Copy of letter dated 6th August 1864) that Madava Row in Consideration of his long and Continuous services, be granted the highest rate of Pension allowed by the Rules.

3. A list of services of the applicant and a Medical Certificate obtained from the Civil Surgeon of Coimbatore as to his unfitness for further service are enclosed.
