To C. T. Longley Esqre
Acting Judge of the Court of Small Causes
Vellore

Most Honored Sir,

I most humbly beg leave to represent that I had been employed in the Cuddapah Civil Court as English Writer, Head Writer, Acting Sheristadar and Acting District Moonsiff for upwards of 15 years but owing to continued illness and several domestic embarrasments, I was obliged to leave that Zillah for the situation of 2nd Writer in the late Sub Court at Chittoor in 1859 but in consequence of the abolition of that Court I was appointed English Writer of this Court – In all of which Capacities I behaved myself with great propriety and attention to the satisfaction of my superiors as would appear from the testimonials in my possession.

As I am still suffering with sickness of different sorts which makes me so weak that I feel ~~[illegible]~~ difficult to perform the duties of the Office I now hold – And the climate of this place also does not agree with my constitution –

I therefore most humbly pray you will in consideration of my services (20 years & 9½ months) be pleased to accept this application and on perusal of the testimonials in my possession, obtain for me a good service Pension, retaining me in the service till I get a Pension certificate –

I remain with Due Respect
Most Honored Sir
Your most obedient & humble Servant
