Sir

In answer to your Memo No. 140 dated 27th September 1864 I have the honor to inform you that although steps were taken to apply for sanction towards granting the discharged Peons gratuity there was always an obstruction in the way from want of information regarding the services of each Peon and it was … only when the Inspector General of jails visited this station this year that the Peons in a body applied to him and the necessary steps were taken towards finding out the period period of Service of each individuals by searching into the old records and preparing the necessary Forms &c &c

Sir

With reference to your Memo dated 15th Instant No. 155 I have the honor to state that I overlooked the latter part of 1st Memo No. 140 dated 27th Ultimo.

I proposed the gratuity in proportion to the proved length of service - I did not understand by the rule that it is necessary to give the greatest amount i.e. six months in each case and as none had served 30 years I recommended the amount in each case as I have

have done.—

The Governor in Council is pleased to grant the persons named in the margin, the gratuities entered opposite their respective names, they being peons of the Cuddapah Jail, discharged in August 1860.

The Governor in Council is constrained to observe that the explanation offered by the Sessions Judge for his omission to investigate the claims of these persons is very unsatisfactory. It would seem that had the peons not in a body applied to the Inspector General of Jails no.

no enquiry would have been made into their claims.
