Forwarded to the Controller & Auditor of Public Works Accounts for verification and eventual Submission to Government.

This application was not sent along with those of other dismissed Servants in September last, inasmuch as Gopaul Pillai was employed as a Maistry.

Under the head "period of Service in public employ," in the Register, Gopaul Pillai's Services previous to 24th May 1850 are not taken into account, as he was employed as a temporary Maistry from 1st March 1847 to 23rd May 1850, and before that in a grade ineligible to pension.

Sir,

In reply to your letter dated 16th July 1864 No. 664 requesting certain information in connection with the application for a gratuity of Gopaul Pillay late Talug Maistry & Sub Overseer, I have the honor to inform you that the duties of Gopaul Pillay while acting as Daloyet Maistry were to frame Estimates, Superintend the execution of works and perform all other functions which appertain to lower Subordinates of the Department, but he was in fact a Dalayet and his name was borne on the list of Dalayets. For the pay he was receiving as a Peon he was attending to the Maramut duties under the orders of his Superiors.

2. From the records received from the Tasildars of Dindigul and Pareacolum it appears that the said Gopaul Pillay held the appointment of a Talug Maistry in the said 2 Talugs from 24th May 1850 to 30th April 1857 and was paid out of the amount Sanctioned annually under under Estimate on account of repairs &c.

The office of Talug Maistry was a permanent one till the reorganization of the Maramut Establishment in 1857.

3. I understand Gopaul Pillai maintained a good conduct while he Served in the Revenue Department.

I have the honor to be
Sir.
Your Most obedt. Servant.

Your Memo No 66 of 28th June 1864 calling for certain information in connection with the application for a gratuity on behalf of Gopaul Pillay, late a Sub overseer in the D.P.W.

Explanation was afforded in Memo from this office No 292, dated 26th May 1864, that under the head "period of Service in public employ" in the Register, Gopaul Pillay's Services prior to 24th May 1850, are not taken into account, as he was employed as a temporary maistry from 1st March 1847 to 23d May 1850; and that before that period he was employed in a grade ineligible to pension.

Gopaul Pillay's Service as Salary Maistry from 24th May 1850, to 30th April 1857, was of a permanent nature; and his pay during that period was disbursed from Sanctioned Estimates - vide Collector's letter No 1375, dated 12th November 1864.

His conduct while in the Department appears to have been good.
