Report of the Civil Paymaster (" 29th do. do. No. 158)

Order thereon 12th December 1864 No. 513.

The report of the Civil Paymaster shows that the applicants service, if it were of the nature of approved good service, would entitle him to a pension of Rs. 4-8-2 or 1/3rd of his average salary for the last five years.

2 It appears however that he was under suspension from the 11th May 1853 for 9 months on account of gross carelessness in omitting to enter at once in the accounts a sum paid into the Treasury in which he was a Shroff.

3 The Governor in Council

Council is therefore pleased to pass to Narasimma Chetty a reduced pension of Rs 4 — per mensem to have effect from the 1st May 1864.

4 A period of upwards of 6 months has been allowed to elapse before the submission of this application by the Collector of which delay no explanation is offered.
