Memorandum

In returning the Register received with the Civil Paymaster's Memo: of the 9th Inst., with column 22 duly filled in, the undersigned takes this opportunity to explain, with reference to the Report on the Register, that C: Mootiah Naick was originally entertained as a Lascar in the late Supg. Engineer's Office, Fort Saint George, on the 1st April 1830, and continued as such, drawing his Pay in the Supg. Engineer's Office and doing duty in the Litho: Deptt. until the 4th Septr. 1854 - On the 5 Septr. 1854, being qualified, he was permanently appointed as Printer in the Department, where he served until the 31st March 1863, when his situation was abolished -

Under these circumstances, as the period he served as Lascar qualifies for Pension (being Military) the undersigned strongly recommends that C: Mootiah Naick be granted the Pension stated in the Register -

Your Memo: No. 76 dated 27 Inst: States that by the Leave Statement it would appear that no parties were appointed to act for J. Vencatanarainum, and such being the case his full Salary is due to Govt. - If a Ministerial Servant is appointed to act for another he is entitled to so much of the Salary as equals the amount deducted on account of absence from the incumbent, but it is necessary that the Acting Parties should be appointed previously or at the time the incumbent obtains leave, vide Code Memo p. 43 Rule 215. In this case not only were no persons appointed to act but the absentee did not obtain sick leave. He has been allowed to count his resignation from the date of departure on leave and therefore his salary becomes forfeited to the State, unless Govt. are pleased to issue special orders to the contrary—
